CHILDHOOD, REMADE.

From a childhood wish to a co-designed Squishy / Slime collection.

THE SIGNAL

Some working adults revisit childhood toys with their own income, after rediscovering them online. Original fieldwork is still pending.

INSPIRATION

S1: Sampheng adult-return account.
S2: broader revival at Mega Plaza.
Personal observations still needed.

BASIC NEEDS

Enjoyment, memory, autonomy and belonging. Interpretations to test with buyers.

DRIVERS

Longer shift: spending power.
Shorter trigger: online rediscovery.
The buying context changes.

EXPECTATION

Help me choose a toy connected to my own childhood.
A proposed expectation.

REPLAY LAB

Co-designed small batches for early-career Thai adults.

Choose shape, colour and feel.
Add a name and memory.
Pre-order a viable collection.
Produce or refund under clear terms.

Test real demand, sample quality and batch economics.

Demo activity is simulated. Costs, prices and thresholds require validation.
